

SOME CIRCUS FACTS.

Interesting Things About the Barnum & Bailey Show Not Generally Known.

There are some facts about the Barnum & Bailey circus that are not generally known, but which can hardly fail to be of interest to the thousands who visit the big show when it exhibits here on Friday, September 21. The present season marks its fifty-third annual tour. It is the only American circus that has ever made a tour of Europe, and its entire equipment, except railroad cars, has twice been across the Atlantic. It has been to Australia. The show represents an actual investment of $4,000,000. Its daily expenses average $7,600. Many small cities, which must be played in order to break the railroad jumps, represent an actual money loss. The employees number nearly 1100 men, women and children. They come from all parts of the civilized world. Twenty-six different languages are spoken in the dressing room. The actual circus company numbers about 800 expert artists. These include riders, acrobats, aerialists, arctic specialists and performers of startling novelties, like the Auto-Bolide and somersault-turning bicycle acts.

There are over 500 horses and ponies. The menagerie has fifty dens, each with two or three compartments, so that there are considerably over a hundred cages of wild beasts; also four giraffes, a herd of zebras, three herds of elephants.

The performance is given in three rings, on two stages, in mid-air, and upon an immense hippodrome track, with seats for 15,000 spectators. The Barnum & Bailey circus is the only one that provides actual chairs for reserved seats. The seats cover twelve acres of ground, and are said to be the largest ever constructed for the purpose. To carry all this requires five long trains of double-engine cars. To store the cars requires a mile and a quarter of siding.

ANTI-SALOON MEN

Ask Candidates for Governorship to Define Their Position on Temperance Issue.

President M. B. Adams, of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon League, last Thursday sent Judge S. W. Hager and Hon. N. B. Hays, candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination before the State primary, a list of questions to which it asks answers to be furnished to the voters of the State. The questions deal with the attitude which the candidates may take in regard to the temperance question and are as follows:

"Dear Sir:—It is the duty of Anti-Saloon League, through its executive officers to furnish to the voters of Kentucky information as to how certain candidates for public office stand on questions affecting the liquor business. As the temperance question is now the leading issue before the people of Kentucky we respectfully inquire of you what is your platform and what may the people expect of you as to the following points?"

"Will you, if elected to the office of Governor, use all the powers and influence of your office to enforce the laws against the Sunday sale of liquor?"

"Will you recommend in your message to the next Legislature the passage of a bill extending the operation of the county unit law over the whole State, as contemplated in the original Cannaack-Redwine bill offered in the Legislature of 1905?"

"Have you any understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, with the liquor interest in this State by which your policies as Governor will be in any way controlled by their desires?"

"We will thank you for an early answer and we will in turn give the information to the people of the State."

"Yours sincerely,
"M. B. ADAMS, President.

The Exquisite Garment Models For Fall.

They're All Ready.

Charming indeed, with an abundance of style with every new design thought thrown in.

These garments represent the masterstroke of high class tailoring, free from the sweat shops—made in well lighted—well ventilated establishments by men tailors well up in the art of ideal garment-making.

Perfection. Yes! From the button-holes to the inner linings. These are not the products of ill paid labor, but worthy Fall Suits, and Jackets and Cloaks. Skirts that rank among the "best" in one of the finest tailoring shops in the country.

Notably among the New Fall Creations is the Price Chap—a sturdy little suit for women, with just enough style in the make-up to fascinate the careful dresser. Then comes the Pony Jacket Suits—chic and embodying the correct principles which go to make up the perfect costumes. And there's a score of other good creations ready and willing to pass the most careful inspection.

Jackets in the trim fall shapes and coats of the long and gracefully flowing styles. Raincoats of superb styles. Skirts in the fashion formed pleating effects.

And all priced—surprisingly low priced.

MR. BRYAN

Modifies His Statements On Government Ownership of Roads.

At Mr. Bryan's reception in New York on return from Europe he advocated government ownership of railroads. There has been so much opposition to this that he has modified his statements. At a banquet in Chicago on Tuesday of last week he said:

"I stated what I thought with the expectation that everybody would exercise the same freedom in the discussion of the question. I was led to my conclusions by the corruption of the people of the United States by the railroads as I have seen it. In my judgment we have had no more corrupting influence in American politics than that of the railroads. It has corrupted the people by the past. I have known conventions to be controlled by passes. I have known Judges to be elected by railroads and I have reached the conclusion that this corruption cannot be eliminated until these natural monopolies become the property of the Government. I am opposed to centralization, and because I believe that the state can best do that which concerns the state alone, because I believe in the doctrine of self-government, therefore I prefer that instead of having all the railroads owned by the Federal Government we should have the local lines owned by the state governments and only the trunk lines owned by the Federal Government."

On the trust question he says:

"To the extent that the President has gone, I am glad, but he has not gone far enough, and he has not been able to take his party with him as far as he has gone."

MCCHESNEY QUILTS

RACE FOR AUDITOR.

Admits He Can't Stand the Expense of Richman's Primary.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 4.—Harry C. McChesney, Secretary of State, issued a card this morning withdrawing from the race for State Auditor. He said:

"Conditions have arisen since my announcement which make it apparent that in order to make the character of campaign necessary to give me a fair chance to win, I would be obliged to expend in a perfect legitimate way more money than I feel I could afford to spend in winning an office with no larger salary than the office of Auditor. In retiring from the race I do not do so in the interest of either of the other candidates for the position."

Mr. McChesney will practice law at the end of his present term.

Woman Suffrage.

Bishop Fellows, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, believes in woman suffrage. In addressing the Kenosha Club recently he said, "A woman is just as well qualified to cast a vote for every municipal officer in Chicago as any man, and I hope the charter of Greater Chicago will embrace in its provisions the privilege of women to vote."

STRONG TESTIMONIALS

From Glasgow Regarding The Good Effect of Local Option On Business.

Below are statements from business men and officials of Glasgow, Barren county, as to the excellent benefits derived from local option, which every one should read and ponder over before voting for the damnable hell holes and saloons now in Mt. Sterling. They are convincing statements and prove beyond any question that a "dry town" is in every way beneficial to business interests as well as moral reform.

COUNTY OFFICIALS TESTIFY.

Glasgow, Ky.—During the time Glasgow has been a local option town business has grown steadily, and today there is not a more prosperous town in Southern Kentucky. Trade, along all lines, has increased 100 per cent. in volume. Real estate has risen more than 50 per cent. and the demand for both business and residence property far exceeds the supply.

In this short statement, it is impossible to give the growth along all lines and we shall speak of only one—the banking business. Ten years ago we had but two banks, with about $100,000 or $200,000 on deposit; now we have four, with more than $500,000 and the fifth bank is now being built, which will increase the business in banking circles.

It has been only a few years since we had more than a dozen distilleries in this county, furnishing plenty of whisky to all who would drink. What is the picture now? It is not uncommon to see from 500 to 1,000 wagons driving into Glasgow, loaded with farm products, lumber, poultry, etc., and leave in the evening with goods and necessities of life, to carry to their homes, the drivers not even thinking of whisky.

We believe this great amount of happiness and prosperity is largely due to local option. Local option will cause any community to have more money, better churches, new and improved school houses, more healthful people, better farms, and, above and beyond all, happier families. We have tried this for thirty years.

G. M. Bohannon, County Judge, W. E. Jones, County Attorney, J. C. Raussean, Sheriff, J. N. Bohannon, Circuit Clerk, J. A. Murray, County Clerk, Gib B. Carter, Jailor, W. C. Turner, Supt. Schools, C. T. Fisher, Assessor.

BUSINESS MEN'S TESTIMONY.

Glasgow, Ky.—Some noticeable changes have been the result of the enforcement of the local option law. The jail has been emptied, the police judge is farming, the city attorney is out of a job, the city marshal is collecting tax as there is nothing else to do. The streets are clear of loafers. There is a great increase in all businesses. Many who were drunkards are now sober and working each day, making money, buying what they need and paying for what they get. Making happy families who were once in grief. The local option law is a great benefit to our town and it will be to all others who will try it. H. D. Ralston & Bros. Gent's Furnishings.

SUCCESS DUE TO ABSENCE OF SALOONS. Glasgow, Ky.—Our wholesale grocery and produce business was organized since the Botts local option law went into effect, and has grown to its present size, being one of the largest mercantile institutions in Southern Kentucky, and has thrived under the operations of the local option law.

We believe that our success in business has been due largely to conditions that have prevailed by reason of the fact that our city has been free from saloons, and illicit sellers of liquors have been vigorously prosecuted, so that the traffic has been almost completely stamped out. These conditions have created and maintained an atmosphere of sobriety and industry that has evidently reached and had a good effect upon our employees and all persons connected with our business.

From a business point of view we have felt no need of saloons, nor the revenue the city would derive from them.

Davidson Bros., Wholesale Grocers and Produce.

REAL ESTATE ADVANCE.

Glasgow, Ky.—For more than a quarter of a century Glasgow has prospered under the local option law, and during the last fifteen years, real estate in and around the town has advanced in value all the way from 25 to 50 per cent. To say nothing of our entire satisfaction with the prevailing situation, we would not encumber our pleasure by casting our vote for open saloons.

H. H. Huff, Insurance Agents.

DON'T NEED THEM.

Glasgow, Ky.—Regarding the local option in our town, we wish to say that we do not need saloons to make business better for we have been without them for nearly thirty years and you cannot find a better point for business anywhere in the State.

We think it would be the greatest curse that could befall us should they be voted here. The present conditions are perfectly satisfactory.

Terry Hughes Comer Co., By Karl E. Rapp.

September 19 is the day on which Mr. Sterling will be turned over, body and soul, to the saloon and gambling interests or when they will be driven forever from this city. The open saloon is an eyecore in this community, where law is flagrantly violated, young men debauched and families made miserable, dealing death and destruction on every hand. They should be eliminated from the face of the earth—every sane man agrees to this fact. This question must be answered at the polls on election day: "Do you prefer the open saloon, gambling hell and bawdy houses to happy children, pure homes and plenty to eat?"

IF YOU PREFER THE SALOON TO THE HOME VOTE FOR THE OPEN SALOON, BUT IF YOU FAVOR PURE HOMES, SOBER MEN AND BOYS AND HAPPY FAMILIES VOTE FOR LOCAL OPTION. MR. VOTER WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

DO NOT LIKE MAYOR.

The whiskey men of Lexington are not fond of Mayor Combs' rulings, his action in the revoking of saloon license for violation of the Sunday laws, and to succeed him are urging the election of L. B. Shouse, a saloon man.

WILL REVOKE LICENSE.

Mayor Combs, of Lexington, in answer to the question "Can't you extend your jurisdiction to Mt. Sterling?" said: "No, but if you will bring Mt. Sterling saloonists to Lexington with the proof that they have been violating Sunday laws, I will revoke his license."

The $20.00 reward offered by Mayor Combs, of Lexington, caught two saloon men, who pleaded guilty and the licenses were revoked. Mayor had $20 paid to Detective White, and the taking out of new license by saloon men made it a paying transaction to the city, netting $150.00.

WORSE THAN EVER.

A few summers ago a large streamer fastened over the entrance of a saloon in Chicago read thus: "Under new management; worse than ever."

How has this been with a few of Mt. Sterling's saloons? Did we say Mr. STEELING's saloons? Yes, the people of Mt. Sterling have to their shame and dishonor permitted changes of ownership which have proved themselves worse than under former managements.

Consider the exposes the ADVOCATE has made during the past weeks and then, voters, approve if you can the conduct of your representatives.

Mayor Combs, of Lexington, has been given discretionary powers by the city of Lexington, and of Mt. Sterling he has said: "Make it possible to bring her cases to me with sufficient evidence and I will pitch your accused saloon keeper out at the window," meaning that he would revoke their license. All praise to Mayor Combs.

If the Mayor has sufficient powers to protect the people properly and the Council will not grant it, then the people should hold that Council strictly to account.

"The way to reform is to reform." Never too late to do good. Begin now and the people whose servants you are may have mercy on you.

IS IT RIGHT?

"Is it right to license men to sell that which will make a man drunk and then punish the man for being drunk?"

"Is it right to license a man to make paupers, and then tax sober men to take care of them?"

"Is it right to license a saloon to teach vice, and then tax people for schools to teach virtue?"

"Is it right to teach a boy to restrain his passions, and then vote to license a place where his worst passions will be inflamed?"

"Is it right to take care of your own boy and vote to license a place which ruins your neighbor's boy?"

"Is it right to preach justice and charity, and then vote to license a thing which robs the widow and orphans of their bread?"

If these things are NOT RIGHT then vote the saloons OUT!

TEMPERANCE.

During the past week the canvas in the county has been active. Largely attended speakings have been held at country churches. The meeting tonight will be at Leese church, speaking by Rev. Joplin and others. The election will be only in town.

Rallies were held at C. M. E. Church on Thursday night and at Colored Christian Church on Monday night. White men and women attend these and take part. The colored people are much interested and will do noble service in improving the conditions in our city. Meeting last night at colored Baptist church.

As we are on the press, this Tuesday night, Geo. W. Baln, is lecturing at the court house.

Let every friend of temperance do his and her part in achieving a great victory over the powers of evil. Large delegations of country people are coming to town on next Wednesday, election day. The writer has never doubted the result.

The saloon must and will go.

EVIDENT CONSPIRACY. SALOONISTS LAY PLOT.

The following recital is as true as it is dark and damning, and reveals something of the conditions of our city. On July 26, immediately after the interview with our informant, I committed the facts to writing, told my wife and brother, N. H. Trimble, so that if an assassin's bullet or club should end my work in defense of the boys and girls and good name of this community, there would be a clue to my ending. In the last few days I have given some publicity to the attempt. I also appeared before the Grand Jury. I deemed it advisable to make public mention of this affair, so on last Sunday night at the union temperance meeting at First Presbyterian Church I made a statement.

Following is the sworn statement of James Campbell, of Sharpsburg, driver of the stage to our city, who was to execute the plot laid by the men referred to:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that on Wednesday, July 25, 1906, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., P. H. Davis, saloonist, said to me in substance: "I have something to say to you. I intended to speak of it earlier. Do you know that a paper, the Advocate I think, stated that when your wife was dying she swore and cursed all the preachers and local option workers and wished they would die, and then she died; that Frank Gibbons, the saloonist, called me as I was in front of his saloon and showed me the article in the Advocate; he can tell you about it." I at once went to Gibbons' saloon, and when I referred to the article, Mr. Gibbons readily took up the matter as if he understood it, and said, "that such an article had appeared in the Advocate and that he (Gibbons) would get him a copy of the Advocate if the children had not torn it up and show it to me." He confirmed what Davis had told me. Believing what Davis and Gibbons told me was true, I was much angered and went to the Advocate office to see Mr. Trimble, determined to do violence to the man who would thus talk and lie on my dying wife. When I reached the office the editor was not in. I said, while there, that I would kill the man who would print such about my wife, even if I had to be hanged; that I would shoot his heart out or blow his head off.

On the following day I again went to the Advocate office and met Mr. Trimble, one of the editors. I told him what I had heard. He expressed sympathy with me, assured me that he knew nothing about such an article, that it had not appeared in the Advocate. As Mr. Gibbons had told me that the article had appeared in the first issue after my wife died (which was on February 3, 1906), Mr. Trimble at once showed me every article in that issue and each of the other issues printed in Feb. We found no reference to the death of my wife. I am thoroughly convinced that Mr. Trimble is innocent, and know that such an article did not appear in Mr. Trimble's paper.

Witness my hand this September 11, 1906.

OBSERVATIONS.

On July 25, when I returned to my office I was informed that Mr. Campbell had called, and that I had missed a thrashing. I replied, I regret that I was away. On the following day I was in when Mr. Campbell called. I received him cordially and asked what I could do for him. He told what he had heard, without mentioning names of his informants. When he mentioned "local option workers," the thought occurred, some whiskey man is the author of this. I then asked him who had told him. He replied as given in above statement. Before he left my office he was convinced that I had nothing to do with the affair.

I read to him list of subscribers in Sharpsburg so that he could ask any of them. I requested him to call on Mr. Gibbons and get the copy of the Advocate. Later he said to me that he had told some friend at Sharpsburg about what was reported as appearing in the Advocate, also that he had talked with Wm. Botts, the saloonist of our city, that Mr. Botts had advised him to come to me and apologize. He says he came twice, I was out. Later he saw me at Trimble Grocery Co.'s and did apologize. I told him I cherished no feeling against him, as I regarded him as an innocent victim. I accepted his apology.

Last week I appeared before the grand jury and testified and told the jury to call Chas. Stephens, foreman, and Chas. Perkins, employee of my office. After I appeared before the jury I was informed by Mr. Stephens and Perkins that Mr. Campbell had said that he would shoot the heart out of, and blow the head off and kill the man who would talk thus about his dying wife, even if he had to follow him over the country. I then went to the grand jury and reported this.

I refer to Mr. Botts especially to let the public know that a member of the city council has for a few weeks known about this affair. Perhaps this information and his (Mr. B's) knowledge will have some influence in the Council if the members of that assembly see fit to investigate this or any other charge and proven fact of lawlessness against those saloon keepers who have violated the law and have been indicted or convicted at the present term of Circuit Court (and account of which appears in this issue.)

The writer has in the extra Advocate of July 6 and in the regular issue of July 11 told of the shooting of three men and the gambling in P. H. Davis' saloon.

This was, we presume, the incentive for him to plan an attack on me. Why Mr. Gibbons should take a hand in so murderous a plot, later developments will show. City license has been given them to sell whiskey, but not run a gambling den or otherwise violate the law or even to expose an editor to violence or death.

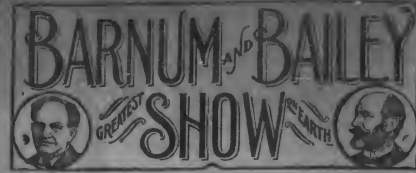

Whether or not such conduct will be upheld, condoned or tolerated by the City Council, jury, or general public, remains to be seen. Declarations or insinuations by any saloon-keeper or citizens (or even Mr. Davis or Mr. Gibbons) that the writer has misrepresented or told a lie or is unworthy of belief will not change Facts and Observations, or cause him to say mean things or wish harm to befall the guilty and thoughtless, hasty people. I pity and pray for those who have threatened, abused and tried to have me killed. I hope they will repent and show that they are men, and not ingrates and demons in the flesh.

When convinced that I am wrong I will apologize. Threats will not avail. I am no fighter and will not be scared. I can be found in my office or on the street; call singly or in groups. Remember our entreaty for local option which when enforced will prevent most of our ills.

Respectfully,

B. W. TRIMBLE.

Mrs. C. T. Evans Knocked Down and Run Over.

Mr. Allen Prewitt, Sr., informs us that on Monday morning his daughter, Mrs. Evans, and three children were coming to town in a rockaway, that she saw an automobile approaching that she waved and waited a signal for the machine to stop, that the driver of the auto paid no attention to her, that she then jumped out to grab her horse's bridle, that the horse knocked her down, stepped over her prostrate body, fortunately missing her, that both wheels of the rockaway passed over her, crushing her near the hip and going over her shoulder and arm, that she was brought to town and went to bed at the home of Mr. Herriott, later was taken home and was in bed on Tuesday, that her body is considerably bruised, that her children were scared at the time, that the occupants of the auto, Mr. E. O. Lyon and wife, of Lexington, and others did not show proper regard for her before and after the accident, that there should be better protection for people in street autos, especially when an effort is made by people to stop approaching autos.

Mr. P. thought that there would have been no trouble if the auto had stopped.

Barn Burned.

On Saturday night the tobacco and stock barn of J. Harve Henry was burned with all its contents, including about 3 acres of tobacco, 6 to 7 tons of hay, 30 barrels of corn and farming implements.

The tobacco belonged to J. H. Hall. There was no insurance on barn or contents. It is thought to be the work of an incendiary.

The Sensible View of It.

Thousands of Americans can readily recall the collection of herbs, roots and barks which grandmother brought into use for nearly every ailment. Many a pioneer home had no other physician than these same sensible, brainy, self-reliant women who prided themselves on their knowledge of the treatment of common and even complicated ailments and whose gossip was oftentimes the exchange of proven remedies.

Those same self-reliant home doctors are practicing to-day all over this broad land. The mothers of this and all other countries have in the past and will in the future take care of the ordinary simple ailments incident to every family with their own favorite remedies.

Herbs, roots and barks are no longer used in their crude state by these mothers, but the recipes which the pioneer mother found dependable have been developed into proprietary remedies and each home today has its little collection of proven medicines, which are used judiciously and effectively in ninety-nine out of a hundred cases. For instance, when a child is feverish and fretful, has a sour stomach and constipated bowels, the well-informed mother needs no one to tell her that to get at the seat of the trouble she has only to use a remedy which will sweeten the stomach and gently move the bowels. This she does with a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a reliable medicine made under the formula of a well-known physician, from the same herbs which have been used for ages by the pioneer mother as well as by the physicians all over the world, with the addition of Pepsin, the best of all modern digestants.

Many a serious illness has been "nipped in the bud" by the quick use of some good remedy and the family remedies are just as necessary in well-regulated households as food and drink. A remedy which may be taken by every member of the family for the common ills of every day life (such as the one above mentioned) meets with ever increasing favor in the American home, in spite of all that may be said against "patent" medicines as a class by self-appointed guardians of the public health.

There are no doubt nostrums offered for sale which are deserving of the increased attacks of the editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, but Mr. Bok should be fair enough to admit that there are good medicines as well as worthless medicines, just as there are good doctors and poor doctors. There is no more justice in classing all proprietary medicines as bad, because some advertised "remedies" are worthless than there would be in disparaging the world's benefactors the great physicians, because of the many "quacks" who write M. D. after their names.

Rockefeller Aids Revival.

A Cleveland, (Ohio), dispatch of Aug. 21, says: Two Cleveland men, workers in John D. Rockefeller's church, will attend a revival meeting at Hazel Green, Ky. Mr. Rockefeller to pay all expenses. They are H. M. Briggs, rug merchant, and Cornelius Maloney, attorney.

The invitation comes from H. J. Derthick, of Hazel Green, who was in Cleveland last summer and spoke at a prayer-meeting at the Euclid avenue Baptist church. Mr. Rockefeller was present. The religious fervor of Mr. Derthick's speech charmed the man of millions and he said that the moon tainer be presented to him. The result was a cordial churchly friendship.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago a popular magazine published an editorial article in which it was asserted, in substance, that if disease should be regarded as criminal, certainly it is that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unmerciful, cruel, yet criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from pleurisy, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard and unrelenting work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for women's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from the household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, that his kind should be in these cases, to do with those in which the patient is unable to obtain rest, and the physician is unable to observe the patient's progress, and the "Favorite Prescription" is the best.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 21 stamps for cloth-bound. If tick conceal the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held strictly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Honesty of a Party's Purpose Judged by Character of Men in Charge.

In Chicago, Oct. 9. September 4th Mr. Bryan said: "The honesty of party's purpose is shown not merely by its platform or the speeches of its candidates and supporters, but by the character of the men who are entrusted with the party management."

"Illinois presents a case in point. As you all know, I wrote a letter asking the National Committee from this state, Mr. Roger Sullivan, to resign from the National Committee in the interests of the Democratic party. I explained to him that his corporate connections made it impossible for him to help the party so long as he was in official position, but stated that were that the only objection the matter might be dealt with at the state convention two years hence I pointed out to him that as he held his seat by fraud, there could be no harmony in the Democratic party in the state until he, by resigning, showed his respect for the wishes of the majority at the last state convention."

How To Save Money.

In these times when living expenses have increased from thirty to fifty per cent, it is unusual to hear of a standard remedy being offered at half price.

Yet that is the way W. S. Lloyd, the popular druggist, is selling Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of dyspepsia and constipation. In addition to selling a fifty cent bottle, containing a month's treatment of sixty doses, for 25 cents, he gives his personal guarantee with every bottle he sells to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

This unusual offer has brought hundreds of customers to his store in the last few weeks, yet out of many bottles of Dr. Howard's specific he has sold, but one customer has asked to have the money returned. This was done without any questions, although W. S. Lloyd does not think the remedy could have been given a fair trial.

National Debt.

The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business September 1, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $970,368,883, which is a decrease for the month of $8,408,418.

ST. HELENA'S TRANSFORMATION.

Island Now a Paradise Was Once Barren Volcanic Waste.

Charles Quincy Turner, writing on "The Magic of the Rain," in the Outlook magazine, gives a very remarkable example of how a desert island may be transformed into a veritable paradise. By way of example, he cites the island of St. Helena, which was a barren volcanic waste at the time Napoleon was sent there.

The following paragraph shows what a remarkable change came over the island at the arrival of the English: "The Englishmen were there, however, to stay and for duty, and though they had to send to St. Helena for every drop of water they used, they set about at the beginning of making something grow toward sustaining life, at least modifying conditions. Gradually, by slow degrees but surely, their efforts were successful. Kindly nature requires but little encouragement, and the dewa fell and crystallized and the herbage and shrubbery spread, and little trees took root and shed their seed, and the mountain in the long course of years became largely covered, until at last this one-time waterless heap of waste products of a lifeless volcano became able to provide millions upon millions of gallons of water, which is stored in its caverns for the ships that pass to and from the Cape of Good Hope and to Australia; and beneath the shades of the umbrageous terraces, high up in the cool air, the invader's soldier from tropical Africa and India and the orient finds a restful sanatorium which has brought back to health and life many a weary soul and stricken body. Truly there is magic in the rain and healing in the forests."

THE OLDEST BREED OF DOGS.
Egyptian Gazelle Hound, a Wedding Present to Queen of Spain.

A beautiful Egyptian gazelle hound (Slugh) was among the wedding gifts of the young queen of Spain. The dog, which is a lovely pale cream color and named Suddun, was the gift of the Hon. Florence Amherst, who is a sister of Lady William Cecil, who has been in waiting on the queen of Spain in Madrid.

These desert hounds are among the latest of society's pets and bid fair to outrun in popularity even the aristocratic Borzoi, which is the nearest in character to the eastern greyhound, and is probably derived from him.

The Slugh is perhaps the oldest breed in the world, not even excepting the historic spaniel of the palace of Peking. Their form was sculptured on some of the earliest of Egyptian mural tablets, and some monuments preserve the names of favorite hounds of various kings.

The pedigree of noble hounds notable for their speed in the chase are current to-day, being traditionally handed down among the nobles of Egypt and Arabia as from the days of Saladin, one of whose hounds was named Saadun, while Persian nobles claim that strains they own are older than either, and that the breed first originated in Persia.

The color of the Slugh is that of the desert over which he chases the gazelle, and varies as do the sands, from a rather deep fawn to the palest cream, which is almost white. The greyhound form is most distinctly preserved in the outline of the Slugh.

To Prevent House Burn.

W. B. Hawkins, a prominent farmer of Fayette county and leader of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association, has the following in the Lexington Observer: "House burn or rotten tobacco is the worst of all ills. How to prevent that is the question. When the weather conditions are such that stalks are sticky, when the mould gets on everything in the house, when the air is heavy and still, damp and foggy look out for house burn. Be very careful that no wet tobacco is hung in the barn and as soon as you have any suspicions, even if it is beginning to rot, it is time to be up and doing by actual means what the north or west wind may do by natural means. My remedy is to get up a dry current of air through the tobacco at once and you will be surprised how quickly it can be done. Leave your barn open and fire. Do not make one or two big fires but make twenty or thirty fires all over the barn floor not bigger than your hat, made of charcoal or wood that will burn with a blaze, you will run the house burn out, horse, foot and dragon in twelve hours. Remember an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

SPRING CAPACITIES.
W. S. Lloyd Sells dynamite Under Guarantee of Cure.

The changeless weather of Spring is directly responsible for the prevalence of catarrhal troubles in Mt. Sterling at the present time. As a result, W. S. Lloyd has the past week than ever before in the years that he has handled this reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

If there is a single catarrhal germ in the system, Hymel will search it out and absolutely destroy it, completely eradicating the trouble. The remedy has made so many cures among W. S. Lloyd's customers that he offers to pay for himself if it does not benefit even the worst case of catarrh.

The complete outfit costs only $1, consisting of an inhaler, medicine dropper, and bottle of Hymel, while extra bottles of Hymel can be obtained for 50 cents. There will not be even this small expense if Hymel does not cure, as W. S. Lloyd will return your money.

To Be Voted On.

The following is one of the constitutional amendments that concerns every taxpayer and that is to be voted on this fall:

"Section 4. Persons who have not, at least sixty days before the election at which they are to vote, paid in full state, county, municipal, district and school taxes due by them for the year previous to the one in which they offer to vote, are not hereafter allowed to vote."

Fifth State Development Conven- tion.

October 10, 11 and 12, 1906, is the time of the Fifth State Development Convention at Winchester. It promises to be the largest and most important gathering of the year in the State. A plan for a permanent organization will be presented for adoption.

Kentucky is far behind what it can be. Its resources have been neglected and its commercial and manufacturing advances overlooked. The Association has done much good advocating commercial legislation and shaping policies that have helped our manufacturing interests.

Speakers of national reputation and specialists on agriculture, mining, manufacturing, etc., will address the Convention. Delegates to the Convention will be named by the County Judge of each county, Mayor of each city. Anyone who wishes to attend the Convention can be appointed a delegate direct upon application to the Secretary of the Convention. Last year 90 counties were represented. We hope that some of our best business men of this county will go as delegates and be prepared to thoroughly present our resources, industries, products, etc. P. J. Atizer, of Winchester, is Secretary of the Convention.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When heavily they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthily some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pains in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, dryness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Nelson Davis, who lives on Letelier Avenue, Richmond, Ky., and is a plasterer by occupation, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief to me when all else had failed, and I had begun to fear that there was no cure for me. I was in a state of almost hopelessness when I got my first box. The work of Doan's Kidney Pills are marvelous. They worked a quick and lasting benefit in my case."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at F. C. Duerson's drug store and ask what his customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other 82L

The Largest, Best-Equipped and Cleanest Flat Plug Tobacco Manufacturing Plant in the World

The Reynolds factories, equipped with every modern appliance for producing the best chewing tobacco by a clean, sanitary and healthful process, under the direction of men who have made the business a life study, are located in the centre of the Piedmont, the heart of the tobacco belt, known to the world as the best productive soil for tobacco with an aroma so delightful, pleasing and appetizing that it created and popularized the fondness for chewing tobacco.

Only choice selections of this well-matured, thoroughly cured leaf are used in SCHNAPPS and others of the high-grade Reynolds brands, and expert tests prove that this tobacco requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers.

SCHNAPPS is the brand that made the Reynolds factories famous as the manufacturers of the best and most popular brands of chewing tobacco, and made necessary the enormous growth from a small factory in 1875 to the largest flat-plug factory in the world. The men who started the Reynolds Co., in 1875, are directing it to-day. There are a greater number of manufacturers making imitations claimed to be just as good as SCHNAPPS than any commodity manufactured; yet there are more pounds of SCHNAPPS chewed than the total amount of all imitative brands, or tobacco of similar appearance.

TOO MUCH EVEN FOR GOAT

Animal's by No Means Delicate Stomach Unable to Digest Bucket Full of Lye

Billy Butts, pet of the battleship West Virginia, the menagerie ship of the north Atlantic squadron, went on the sick list the other day, says the New York Herald. He is ordered on a diet of predigested breakfast foods, and for a goat that has never balked on anything from a paper of pins to a grand piano when he was hungry, it is a terrible humiliation.

Billy is a medium-sized goat. He joined the West Virginia at St. Thomas in the West Indies last winter. He wandered on the gun deck when the men were scrubbing down, and when he saw a bucket of lye he looked so good to him that he just had to drink it. He gave one plaintive bleat for help and then tried to butt an eight-inch gun into Wallabout bay.

"Stumpy" McGill, veterinary for the ship's menagerie, was summoned and Billy tried to swallow all the antidotes that could be found, but the lye had seared his throat and not even cigarette stumps, to which he has always been partial, seemed to satisfy him. When a literary party went ashore the men promised to bring aboard some old circus posters to see if they would taste good to Billy.

Billy is no common goat, and every man on the ship, from Rear Admiral W. H. Brownson to the youngest apprentice, is fond of him. The only thing yet found that he would not try to eat is a handsome blanket made especially for him, which he wears every Sunday morning when he takes his place with the men for general inspection.

There is just one living thing on board the West Virginia that Billy is afraid of, and that is a brown Leghorn rooster, which one of the crew picked up at St. Thomas in a way that is not approved by the navy regulations. When the rooster starts for Billy the goat runs to one of the men for protection and acts as if he did not believe roosters were fair fighters.

Besides the goat and rooster the West Virginia has three parrots, which are taking a course in navy English; three dogs, five cats and two monkeys. The monkeys stay down in the engine room, but the rest of the menagerie has the liberty of the ship.

Public Sale

—OF—
Farm, Live Stock, Etc.

On TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1906, on the premises, I will sell at public auction the farm of the late Henry C. Graves, containing 187½ acres, and situated on the Howard's Mill pike, seven miles east of Mt. Sterling, one mile from a beautiful church and close to a school. The farm has a large two-story frame house with ten rooms, two halls and four porches, a never failing spring with water forced to house and barn by a hydraulic Ram, two tenant houses, a barn that holds 8 acres of tobacco, corn crib and other outbuildings. It has an abundance of fruit—apples, peaches, pears, plums, grapes and small fruits. It is all in grass except about 16 acres in cultivation. It has several springs besides the one big spring, and ponds, with Slate Creek running the full length of the place.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third cash, the remainder in one and two years at the usual rate of interest. At the same time and place I will sell the following personal property: 24 cattle—18 2-year-olds and 6 yearlings.

3 Milch Cows,
3 Heifer Calves,
1 Yearling Heifer, with calf,
3 Sows, with pig,
18 Hogs,
2 Mares, and foal,
1 Mule Colt,
1 Horse,
2 Horse Wagon,
1 Phaeton,
1 2 horse cultivator,
1 Randall Harrow,
1 Hay Rake,
1 Mowing Machine,
12 Acres of Corn,
8 or 10 Tons of Hay,
12 Chick Oats Straw,
5,000 New Shingles,
3 Heating Stoves,
1 Piano,
1 New Majestic Steel Range,
Flows, Figs, Harness, Farming Implements, Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Sale will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. For further information address G. R. ARMSTRONG, Mt. Sterling, Ky., or J. E. GREENE, Winchester, Ky.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, and heals. Sold for 60 years.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a regular household remedy for generations. It is a certain remedy for pneumonia, and I feel that I owe my life to its wonderful curative properties.

Will Calvert, 85 years old, and son, Ben, aged 8 years, died suddenly at their home near Wyoming. The father died of morphine, having taken an overdose. The son died of typhoid pneumonia. They were buried in the same grave.

J. Roe Wells and wife returned last week from a visit to Dr. Jerry Wilson in Morehead. On their return they visited friends near Yalc. While crossing Buck creek mountain Mr. Wells got out of his buggy to pick up what he thought to be a handsome necktie lying in the road, but which proved to be a large rattlesnake. Mr. Wells killed the snake which had nine rattles and a button on its wings. (10/31/08).

Free Trip to Louisville.

The Retail Merchants' Association of Louisville will refund in cash your round-trip fare, based on excursion rates, on the following dates: September 17 to October 3; November 5 to 15, December 3 to 15. For full particulars apply to J. V. Beckmann, Manager, 307 Union Bldg., Louisville, Ky.

Lexington Will Be a Center of Burley Tobacco Selling.

With encouragement from tobacco growers in Central Kentucky, Lexington will take a position as a tobacco market of considerable importance. One warehouse for the sale of loose leaf was operated successfully last year and it patrons were well pleased. Another similar warehouse is now in course of construction, and another is being talked of. It is highly probable that one of the largest of the independent tobacco factories in the country will construct a rehandling house there. Last week a representative of an other large factory was seeking a house to be used for similar purposes.

A Thrilling Experience.

At Gallipoli, Miss. William Sneed, son of H. H. Sneed, formerly pastor of the Episcopal Church in this city, and a companion were in a small row boat, when a squall carried them into the Gulf. They were not found until the next evening ten miles from land. They were in the boat twenty-four hours without food and drink and were bathing suits.

Public Sale.

On Monday, September 17, 1906 (Court Court-day) at Court House in Mt. Sterling, I will sell the highest bidder a fine Blue Grass Farm containing 290 acres, 24 miles from Mt. Sterling on Spencer pike, known as Wilson farm, with good brick house, tobacco barn, well watered, and all necessary out-buildings; also fine orchard. This farm will be sold in two tracts and then as a whole—tract of 100 acres with all the improvements except tenant house and small barn, the other tract 190 acres. Sale at 1 o'clock sharp. For particulars apply to T. J. Thomas, R. F. D. No. 2, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Largest Woman Dead.

THE AGENT LAUGHED LAST

Incident Shows How Hard It Is to Trap the Merry Insurance Chaser.

A certain woman who wished to have some fun at the expense of an agent who had oftentimes solicited her to insure herself and family asked him on one occasion if he would insure the cat. The agent, to the astonishment and to small amusement of some friends, promptly offered to do so, provided she paid the first premium down. The woman, still thinking to laugh him, expressed her willingness to do so, and placed a dollar on the table. The agent quickly produced a proposal, filled it in and obtained her signature while those present were on the tip-toe of expectancy as to what was to follow.

"Now, madam, with your permission, may I see the cat?" "Certainly," she replied, at the same time pointing to a glass case which contained the stuffed remains of the poor defunct cat.

A chorus of decisive laughter burst from all present, but to their dismay the agent turned, bowed politely, at the same time picking up the dollar and exclaimed:

"When the cat dies, madam, kindly call at our office and claim the insurance money. Good morning."

PATTI'S GOOD LOOKS.

England's most famous singer, Miss Patti, although over 63 years old, still enjoys the best of health and good looks. Her beautiful rose-pink complexion, which has ever been her most striking attraction, she attributes to "fresh air, careful dieting and rain baths. With respect to the latter, she says: "By all means let the rain beat against your face as often as you have a chance. The rain has a wonderful freshening effect on the pores of the skin. Of course, you must otherwise wrap up well to prevent taking cold."

Miss Patti takes over three hours' daily exercise in the open air, which she considers should be a regular feature in the daily life of every woman.

Choice Limestone Farm for Sale

The Moses Markley farm, situated on the Ohio River, adjoining the town of Foster, Bracken county, Ky., of 900 acres. Bounded by the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., and is on the Foster and Butler turnpike and within 30 miles of Cincinnati by boat or railroad, thus giving it water and rail competition.

This large tract of land has been rested for a number of years, is now in grass and high state of cultivation. The improvements consist of 5 good houses, 7 large barns and 3 large ponds of water. The farm is all under fence and partition fences separate the land in suitable acres for pasturage. More than 30 acres are in orchard, 300 acres are now suitable for tobacco and within 2 years there will be 300 more acres of tobacco land.

Will sell this tract of land at $40.00 per acre on long time, if desired, to a reliable party. This farm properly cultivated would be a fortune to a large family. On this farm is located the best limestone quarry on the Ohio River.

HENDERSON BONTON AND DOWAGER

CORSETS.

Since we have been selling these three makes we have had more pleased corset customers than ever before. There are reasons for this, of course. The names would not sell the corsets if they were not desirable in every way. But the brand means much because the makers are conscientious, and put the best possible material, workmanship, designing and style into the corsets which bear these brands. "Hot Air" has popularized some corsets for a short time, but people—the same people—cannot be fooled the second time. Call and let us show you why these corsets continue to grow in popularity.

Mayor Cancels License.

Another saloon keeper has been arraigned before the Mayor for violating the Sunday closing law and his license revoked. His attorney made the plea that his client's license was a vested right and could not be taken away, even if the conditions on which the license was granted had been violated.

P. S.—We will say that the saloonist's name is Bradley, that he lives in Lexington, and that Thos. Combs is the Mayor. The trial occurred on Monday.

P. S.—When the Council of Mt. Sterling with or without the aid of the Mayor, cancels the saloon licenses which ought to be cancelled in Mt. Sterling, we will give due notice.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Convictions, Acquittals and Indictments.

Circuit Court adjourned on Saturday until Monday of next week. We give a review of the important events of the court for the first week. We exceedingly regret that conditions have been and are such as they are. Court proceedings are public records. With the hope of bettering the social conditions of our city and county, and because of occurrences during the past 8 or 10 weeks; the misunderstanding, the threats, the murder plots, the present state of lawlessness and neglect of duty we deem it advisable to call attention to some things.

ACQUITTAL.

All the saloonists charged with selling to inebriates. Jas. K. Denton charged with illegal voting.

CONVICTIONS.

John Hamilton, breach of peace fined $5.
 M. B. Fraley, malicious cutting: fined $60.

Chas. Duncan and Bruce Elam, assault and battery, fined $25.

John Spenser, assault with weapon fined $50.

Twenty Reasons Why You Should Oppose the Saloon.

1. It never builds up manhood but tears it down.
2. It never beautifies the home, but often wrecks it.
3. It never increases one's usefulness, but lessens it.
4. It never allays the passions, but lodges them.
5. It never stills the tongue of slander, but looses it.
6. It never promotes purity of thought, but poisons it.
7. It never empties almshouses and prisons, but fills them.
8. It never protects the ballot-box, but defiles it.
9. It never makes happy families, but miserable ones.
10. It never prepares one for heaven, but leads for hell.
11. It never prompts to right doings, but leads to wrong.
12. It never diminishes taxes (on all its revenue), but increases them.
13. It never renders the Sabbath quiet, but desecrates it.
14. It never protects our property or personal safety, but endangers them.
15. It never helps one to get a good insurance policy on his life but militates against it.
16. It never creates ambition and thrift, but invites laziness, prodigality, poverty, idleness and crime.
17. It never builds up the church, but poisons the station house, prisons and chain gangs.
18. It never refines character nor promotes Christian grace, but it is a destroyer of the soul.
19. It never teaches honesty and uprightness, but incites the incendiary to apply the midnight torch.
20. It never protects a man, but robs him of his money, his family happiness, his good name, his hopes and all endearments of life.

STRING WORDS

Oh Abraham Lincoln—Crime to Make Counterfeit Man.
"If it is a crime to make a counterfeit dollar, it is ten thousand times worse to make a counterfeit man!" and if the Impresario for making a counterfeit dollar can be taken and destroyed, the liquor found on a man's premises can be just as legally taken and destroyed."

Of a saloon keeper he said: "Poor man, he does not seem to realize the misery, shame, and wickedness he has set going, and which one day he must account for with God, who forgets nothing. If it is wrong for this person to do all these things, it is grown for the voters to make him their agent by legalizing his business to produce such results. * * *

Only the strong arm of the law can reach these cases. We must stop this authorized trade in whiskey and all other intoxicating drinks. * * * This traffic exists; this demon of intemperance is abroad. It must be met in one of two ways, either by a united, persistent effort to abolish it, or it must be met by our furnishing in the future, as in the past, from our homes, from our Sunday schools and from churches, not only the recruits to keep up this army of drunkards, but we must pay money, in addition, to support the paupers and punish the criminals which the legalized traffic constantly pours out upon us from the saloons."

THE PARADE.

Mysterious Queen and Beauty of Kentucky to Attend Her.

The Blue Grass Fair at Lexington, September 17-22, will be opened by a magnificent parade of floats, secret orders, school children, soldiers, brass bands, Indians, decorated vehicles, automobiles and the beauty and chivalry of Kentucky. The identity of the Queen of the Blue Grass will be made known on the 17th. This county is invited to send six cavaliers to attend to the queen. The merchants of this county are also included in the invitation.

Mrs. Robt. McCreary Drowned.

News was received Monday, September 3, of the drowning of Mrs. Jessica Newberry McCreary, of Chicago, Ill. Mrs. McCreary is the wife of Robt. H. McCreary, son of Senator McCreary, and was caught by an undertow and carried to her death while bathing in Lake Michigan. Her husband was also in the water at the time and he and Dr. Harpole, another member of the party, went to Mrs. McCreary's assistance, but they, too, were carried under. They battled and succeeded in towing the poor unfortunate woman's body to the shore, but she was dead. Both men on rescuing the shore fell exhausted.

Robert McCreary is the only child of Senator and Mrs. McCreary, of Richmond, Ky.

Paris, France, Sept. 2.—Dumas, the famous French dramatist, died at the age of 74. He had just been elected a life member of the Chamber of Deputies. When she found that she had a paper to sign she became nervous, and went to see Dumas to tell him that she shrank from the binding terms of the engagement. Dumas' advice was unhesitating. "My dear child, don't sign; your hair is too curly. People with hair like that" and he passed his fingers through his own crisp waves—"ought never to sign contracts for life. The temperament is too intractable."

Sarah Bernhardt, however, signed, and meeting Dumas eight days later confessed that she had done so. "That's all right," remarked Dumas, cheerfully. "I have won 500 francs ($100). I bet Mme. Dumas that amount after you left yesterday that you would at once go and sign the agreement. Well, I shall buy you something with the money."

The next day Mme. Bernhardt received a magnificent wig of fair hair, absolutely flat, lank and straight. With it came the following sentence on a slip of paper: "Now that you are really one of the house, wear this—you will need it."

Good Poultry Show.

Unquestionably the largest and the best poultry show ever held in the South will be a feature of the Big Blue Grass Fair at Lexington during the week of September 17th to 22nd.

Wireless telegraphy is being used for the first time in the transmission of messages. The first message was sent from New York to London on the 1st of September. The message was: "The first wireless telegraph message sent from New York to London on the 1st of September." The message was received in London at 11:15 a.m. on the 1st of September.

Marconi was perhaps the most persistent experimenter in the bridging of greater distances, while very early in the development of the new telegraphy Lodge turned his attention to the production of a selective system by means of electrical resonance. The former succeeded so well in his task that from three miles in 1897 he was enabled to send and receive signals 3,000 miles in 1904, while the latter, although he failed to evolve a commercial selective apparatus, led the way for the finding of the sending and receiving circuits individually, and synchronizing them collectively.

Another important feature of recent date is the utilization of autodelectors in connection with telephone receivers as receptives for the translation of incoming electric waves into the alphabetic code of dots and dashes.

De Forest was probably the first in the commercial field to use the auto-detector and telephone receiver, while Fessenden has conferred a lasting benefit upon science and humanity by his ingenious detector, the liquid harrier, an instrument that in its sensibility, its ruggedness and its simplicity is second only to the telephone receiver of Bell.

With these improvements, chiefly made within the past few years, wireless telegraphy is all that the most exacting critic could hope for, if we except acetylene, and in this especial branch of the work there is yet unlimited opportunity for the wireless inventor to exercise his ingenuity.

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as—smothering cough, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulder. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctor said I was incurable. I don't believe it now, for after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of Dr. Miles' Liver Pills, and three bottles of Dr. Miles' Kidney Pills, I am entirely cured, and I feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know, I feel sure, that I cured me. It relieved me from the pain in my chest was gone, and I kept on feeling better, even after taking it." JOHN H. BISHOP, Bowling Green, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, and the doctor will send the first bottle will benefit. If it fails to do better, even after taking it. JOHN H. BISHOP, Bowling Green, Ohio.

SIGNS OF MADNESS IN DOGS.

Cleveland Physician's Detailed Symptoms of Hydrophobia.

"For the information of people owning dogs Dr. W. C. Fair has given the following information to enable them to distinguish hydrophobia from the more harmless ailments, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer:

"The symptoms in a dog," he said, "are any sudden change of habits—for instance, dullness, restlessness, watchfulness, tendency to pick up and swallow small objects, licking cold stones or smooth surfaces, rubbing the throat or chops with the forepaws, pain endured in silence, rubbing or licking of a scar the seat of a bite. Making attempts to bite at sight of another dog or a cat may be looked on as very suspicious, especially if rabies exist in the country. Soon the characteristic signs are manifested, the voice is low and muffled and there is one loud howl followed by two or more successively diminishing in force and uttered without closing the mouth. Some dogs appear unusually fond of their owners and fatally inoculate them by licking their hands and faces. Others turn their head and eyes as if following imaginary objects and snuff as if at flies, licking without object, a constant searching and carrying of wood, a seeking of darkness and seclusion and a disposition to resent disturbance, or a pilgrimage of several days' absence from homes are the most common precursors of the disease. Furious rabies: There is more redness and dried glare in the eyes, squinting and winking of the eyes after fancied objects, more frequent howling and increasing tendency to worry all animals that come in their way, as well as biting their former friends. The victim can no longer rest, but undertakes long journeys at a slovenly trot, ready to fly at all that cross his path, especially if they make any noise or outcry. From the fourth to the eighth day, paralysis sets in, first in the hind limbs, then in the jaw and in the whole body, the certain precursor of a sudden death. Paralytic rabies: In this case paralysis, with drooping of the lower jaw, is shown in the outset and gradually extends in the whole body. The animal cannot bite, eat or drink, rarely barks and dies early."

Never eat or drink anything that has been bitten by a dog, or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or acid. Be prepared. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil instantly relieves the pain—quickly cures the wound. 9-3.

Intlammatory Rheumatism Cured.

Thousands of Sufferers are in Agony Today who might be Cured as Quickly as was Mrs. Whitson, whose Testimony is given below.

SEE WHAT

the marvelous remedy so successfully introduced in Mt. Sterling by Payne, the Advertiser, will do for you.

Mrs. H. B. Whitson, a prominent Lexington matron of N. Kentucky, and whose recovery is very remarkable, says: "I certainly bless the day I began using Dr. Andes' Great Prescription. I have suffered a hundred deaths from inflammatory rheumatism, being afflicted off and on for seven years. At times I was unable to get about at all. I have been in such a condition that it was necessary to turn me in a sheet when bedridden. The disease has attacked nearly every part of my body at various times. About three weeks ago, while resting in Memphis, Tenn., on my way home from Hot Springs, where I had tried without success for permanent relief, I heard a great deal of the marvelous cures accomplished with Dr. Andes' Prescription then being introduced by Payne, the Advertiser. My husband secured a bottle of it for me then and since Mr. Payne's shows have been here I have used one more bottle of the Prescription and rubbed with the oil. The results have been marvelous. I believe I am well again. I was able to come down to his headquarters Friday and did so without the use of cane or crutch. I feel perfectly good and have no remembrance of pain. All swellings have disappeared and but for the dreadful memories, I would not know I had ever been afflicted. August 10, 1906. (Signed.) MRS. H. B. WHITSON.
